

BACKGROUND

Wesfarmers is committed to ensuring compliance with the general and continuous disclosure obligations contained in the Listing Rules of the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) and the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) relating to market sensitive information, and providing Wesfarmers security holders and the market with timely information about Wesfarmers' activities.

Market sensitive information is information that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of Wesfarmers' securities. A summary of the continuous disclosure rules is included in Annexure A and examples of potentially market sensitive information are included in Annexure B.

POLICY APPLICATION

This policy applies to all directors and team members of the Wesfarmers Group.

POLICY

All directors and team members of the Wesfarmers Group must:

- (a) immediately report potentially market sensitive information in accordance with the reporting structure set out below;
- (b) immediately report in accordance with the reporting structure set out below any situations where information that has been lodged with the ASX is or has become incorrect, false, misleading, or deceptive;
- (c) establish processes within their teams to ensure that potentially market sensitive information is elevated within the reporting structure immediately;
- (d) maintain and protect confidential information of the Wesfarmers Group, including by limiting the number of people who are given access to confidential information, ensuring that anyone receiving confidential information is bound by obligations of confidentiality and establishing appropriate procedures for the protection of financial information and information relating to significant projects;
- (e) not use confidential information in a way that may injure or cause loss to the Wesfarmers Group, or to gain a personal advantage;
- (f) not speak publicly about the affairs of the Wesfarmers Group unless authorised under Annexure C; and
- (g) comply with the restrictions on engagement with the investment community, media and the making of other public announcements and statements on behalf of Wesfarmers Group companies that are set out in Annexure D, including the communication restriction periods set out in section 4 of Annexure D.

REPORTING STRUCTURE

Each director and team member within the Wesfarmers Group is responsible for identifying and reporting potentially market sensitive issues in accordance with the diagram below (reporting structure), through to the disclosure officer and ultimately the disclosure committee, to manage in accordance with this policy.

The disclosure officer, Wesfarmers' Company Secretary, is responsible for administering this policy, including receiving reports, and recording and managing the decision-making process under this policy.

The disclosure committee is responsible for liaising with the disclosure officer and making decisions in relation to the disclosure of potentially market sensitive information, and the referral of information to the Board. The disclosure committee comprises Wesfarmers' Managing Director, Chief Financial Officer and Group General Counsel.

REPORTING STRUCTURE

The responsibilities and processes for the disclosure officer, the disclosure committee, and the Wesfarmers Board are set out in Annexure E.

BREACHES

Strict compliance with this policy is a condition of employment within the Wesfarmers Group. Breach of the continuous disclosure rules can expose Wesfarmers and individuals involved in the breach to penalties, third party claims, and reputational damage. A breach can also undermine confidence in the market for Wesfarmers securities. Individuals involved in breaching this policy may be subject to disciplinary action, which may include termination of employment.

Annexure A – Continuous Disclosure Rules

1 Continuous disclosure obligation

ASX Listing Rule 3.1 requires Wesfarmers to immediately disclose to the ASX any market sensitive information concerning Wesfarmers of which Wesfarmers is or becomes aware (subject to the exception in section 4 below).

Wesfarmers also has certain debt securities listed on the Singapore Stock Exchange, and must comply with the continuous disclosure requirements of the Singapore Stock Exchange in relation to debt securities.

The basic principle underlying the continuous disclosure framework is that timely disclosure to the market must be made of:

- (a) information which may affect the value of securities or influence investment decisions; and
- (b) information in which security holders, investors and the ASX have a legitimate interest.

2 What is 'market sensitive' information?

Information is 'market sensitive' if a reasonable person would expect that information to have a material effect on the price or value of Wesfarmers' securities. Value is determined by reference to the market's assessment of the value of Wesfarmers' securities – information may have a material impact on value, even though it may not translate into a material price movement (for instance, the price of Wesfarmers' securities may hold steady despite a movement in the price of securities across the broader market or relevant sector).

Materiality must be assessed by considering all relevant information, including past ASX announcements made by Wesfarmers and other generally available information.

A reasonable person is taken to expect information to have such an effect if the information would, or would be likely to, influence persons who commonly invest in and hold securities for a period of time, based on their view of the inherent value of the security, in deciding whether or not to subscribe for, buy or sell, those securities.

3 When is Wesfarmers aware of market sensitive information?

Wesfarmers will be deemed to be aware of information if, and as soon as, an officer of Wesfarmers has, or ought reasonably to have, come into possession of the information in the course of his/her duties as an officer of Wesfarmers. The term 'officer' includes directors, the Company Secretary and senior managers or executives of Wesfarmers.

4 Exception to continuous disclosure obligation

An exception to Wesfarmers' continuous disclosure obligations under ASX Listing Rule 3.1 applies where each of the exceptions listed in (a) to (c) below are satisfied in relation to that particular information:

- (a) one or more of the following applies:
 - (i) it would breach the law to disclose the information;
 - (ii) the information concerns an incomplete proposal or negotiation;
 - (iii) the information comprises matters of supposition or is insufficiently definite to warrant disclosure;
 - (iv) the information is generated for internal management purposes; or
 - (v) the information is a trade secret; and
- (b) the information is confidential and the ASX has not formed the view that the information has ceased to be confidential; and
- (c) a reasonable person would not expect the information to be disclosed.

The disclosure committee is responsible for determining whether any such exception applies and where an exception may apply, this does not qualify or change the obligation on directors and team members to communicate or report potentially market sensitive information under this policy.

5 Confidentiality protocols

When Wesfarmers is relying on an exception to ASX Listing Rule 3.1, or is involved in a development that may eventually require reliance on an exception, appropriate confidentiality protocols should be implemented to minimise the risk of any leak of confidential information.

6 False market obligation

If the ASX considers that there is, or is likely to be, a false market in Wesfarmers' securities and asks Wesfarmers to give the ASX information to correct or prevent a false market, Wesfarmers must immediately give that information to the ASX. This obligation to give information to the ASX arises even if Wesfarmers considers that the exception outlined in section 4 above applies.

Annexure B – Potentially Market Sensitive Information

Information is market sensitive if a reasonable person would expect that information to have a material effect on the price or value of Wesfarmers securities. Potentially market sensitive information that must be referred to the disclosure officer in accordance with the reporting structure includes:

1 Financial performance

- (a) potential earnings variations between Wesfarmers' internal forecasts or projections and market expectations for a particular reporting period that are:
 - (i) equal to or in excess of five per cent of earnings for a division; or
 - (ii) less than five per cent of earnings for a division where the market has a particular interest in or sensitivity to the earnings of a particular division, or where previous guidance has been provided to the market on the relevant issue,noting that market expectations for a particular reporting period may be influenced by:
 - (i) any earnings guidance released to the ASX by Wesfarmers in respect of the relevant reporting period;
 - (ii) analysts' and brokers' financial forecasts or projections for the relevant reporting period; and
 - (iii) Wesfarmers' actual financial performance in the prior comparable period or to the extent reported for the period to date;
- (b) events, whether internal or external, that are likely to have a significant effect on financial performance – either for the current period or over a longer term. Examples include pandemics and associated government responses and cyber security incidents, including those that may result in material data breaches;
- (c) significant changes to asset values, including reserve estimates;
- (d) decisions regarding Wesfarmers' dividends or distributions, significant changes to Wesfarmers' capital structure or funding, or material events regarding Wesfarmers' securities or financing; and
- (e) a change in the rating applied to Wesfarmers by a rating agency.

2 Non-financial performance

- (a) potential variations in expected performance against or ability to achieve public targets and commitments on non-financial matters, including public ESG targets and commitments; and
- (b) changes in qualifications and assumptions on which public targets and commitments on non-financial matters have been based, including public ESG targets and commitments.

3 Projects and contracts

- (a) a significant merger, acquisition or divestment;
- (b) significant developments in new projects or ventures that are material to Wesfarmers;
- (c) new contracts, orders or changes in supplier or customer arrangements that may be significant to Wesfarmers; and
- (d) significant information affecting joint venture partners, or non-wholly owned subsidiaries.

4 Market and industry information

- (a) media and analyst reports or market rumours which appear to contain or be based on credible market sensitive information that may impact on the price or traded volumes of Wesfarmers' securities; and
- (b) industry issues which have, or which may have, a significant impact on Wesfarmers.

5 Board or senior management changes

- (a) changes to the Wesfarmers Board or senior executives of the Group, or Wesfarmers' auditor; and

- (c) significant changes in accounting policies, tax or other laws.

7 Reputation

- (a) an incident, matter or event adversely affecting the reputation of a business unit, division or Wesfarmers.

Directors and team members who have any doubt as to whether information concerning Wesfarmers is market sensitive must act conservatively and report that information in accordance with the reporting structure.

Annexure C – Authorised Spokespersons

This includes any written or electronic information proposed to be used at investment community briefings in accordance with section 1 above. The disclosure officer may determine that the issue warrants referral to the disclosure committee for a determination in accordance with the reporting structure.

2.2 Prior review of divisional media announcements and media contacts

Wesfarmers generally agrees to requests from the media for interviews on a wide range of business, operational, financial and other issues.

Divisional Managing Directors or divisional Corporate/Public Affairs must notify the Executive General Manager, Corporate Affairs and the Manager, Investor Relations of the following events and provide drafts of any presentations or speaking notes ahead of any of these events:

- (b) any media contact, which leads to, or is likely to lead to, media coverage that may materially impact one or more divisions, or the broader Wesfarmers Group, including presentations to particular interest groups.

2.3 Release of briefing information

Any written or electronic information to be used at investment community briefings will be disclosed to the ASX prior to the briefing, unless it is limited to information that has previously been disclosed to the ASX.

2.4 Attendance at media interviews

Where reasonably practicable, the Executive General Manager, Corporate Affairs (or an alternate) will attend all media interviews that may refer to market sensitive information to assist in the review process outlined in section 3.2 below.

3 Conduct of investment community briefings and media interviews

3.1 Enquiries

If an enquiry at an investment community briefing or during a media interview can only be answered by the disclosure of market sensitive information, Wesfarmers' authorised spokespersons and team members must refuse to answer the enquiry or take it on notice until the market sensitive information has been disclosed to the ASX.

3.2 Review

After an investment community briefing or a media interview, the authorised spokesperson or persons who conducted the briefing or interview, and any Corporate Affairs or Investor Relations representative who attended, will shortly afterwards review the information disclosed at the briefing or interview to ensure that there has been no inadvertent disclosure of potentially market sensitive information and must refer any concerns to the disclosure officer. If the disclosure officer believes that market sensitive information has been disclosed, he/she must immediately refer the issue to the disclosure committee in accordance with the reporting structure.

3.3 No prior release to media or market analysts

Wesfarmers' team members, including authorised spokespersons referred to in Annexure C, must not provide investors, analysts, brokers, shareholder associations or the media with any exclusive stories, interviews or information that contain market sensitive information, including under an embargo arrangement, unless that information has already been released through the ASX.

4 Communication restriction periods to prevent inadvertent disclosure

To protect against the inadvertent disclosure of market sensitive information, Wesfarmers has adopted communication restriction periods in relation to financial information or information that may impact on financial information, from the end of Wesfarmers' financial reporting periods (being 1 July and 1 January) until the disclosure of its financial results for the relevant period to the ASX (communication restriction period).

Unless the relevant briefing, meeting or interview is the subject of specific disclosure to the ASX, Wesfarmers will not hold briefings, meetings or interviews with the investment community, media or others during the communication restriction period to discuss financial information, or information that may impact on financial information, except:

- (a) where responding to investor community or media calls following the release of information through the ASX during the communication restriction period (including in response to Wesfarmers' regular divisional reporting), provided that those responses are limited to the subject of the ASX release, and do not result in the disclosure of market sensitive information;
- (b) Wesfarmers' regular divisional reporting (which may continue to occur during a communication restriction period) for specific divisions; or
- (c) where consent is obtained from the Wesfarmers Managing Director, (or, if the Wesfarmers Managing Director is not available, the Wesfarmers Chief Financial Officer) for communication to occur during the communication restriction period, such as meetings with overseas investors who are visiting Australia during that period, provided that such communication would not result in the disclosure of market sensitive information.

5 Market speculation and rumours

5.1 General approach

Wesfarmers generally does not respond to market speculation or rumours unless required to do so by law, at the request of the ASX, or otherwise pursuant to this policy. All Wesfarmers' personnel must abide by this principle.

5.2 Referral to disclosure officer if reasonably specific or credible

Where a media or analyst report or market rumour appears to contain or to be based on reasonably specific and reasonably credible market sensitive information (whether that information is accurate or not), or there is a sudden and significant movement in the price or traded volumes of Wesfarmers securities as a result of a market rumour or report that cannot be explained by other events or circumstances, the disclosure officer shall promptly refer the matter to the disclosure committee to determine whether a response is required.

5.3 Request by the ASX to comment on market speculation or rumour

If the ASX requests Wesfarmers to comment on market speculation or rumour, the disclosure officer may discuss the matter with the ASX. The disclosure officer must then refer the matter to the disclosure committee for a determination on whether to lodge an announcement with the ASX, or request a trading halt while an announcement is prepared.

5.4 Monitoring media and share price

Monitoring of:

- (a) relevant news, industry and social media will be undertaken by Corporate Affairs; and
- (b) the Wesfarmers share price will be undertaken by Investor Relations, to assist in the identification of potential leaks or rumours that give rise to consideration of whether disclosure is required.

6 Review and use of analyst and broker reports

6.1 Monitoring analyst and broker reports

Analyst and broker reports and forecasts are to be reviewed by Investor Relations and, where necessary, managed by Wesfarmers in accordance with this policy, and in particular the rules set out in this section 6.

6.2 No endorsement of analyst and broker reports

Wesfarmers is not responsible for, and will not endorse, analyst or broker reports (including financial forecasts or projections) concerning Wesfarmers. Wesfarmers will not externally disseminate an analyst or broker report, or utilise or incorporate any of the contents of an analyst or broker report in any of its communications (including on its website).

6.3 Reviewing the contents of analyst and broker reports

Wesfarmers comments to an analyst or broker in relation to that analyst or broker's report should be limited to:

- (a) information that Wesfarmers has previously disclosed to the ASX; or
- (b) correcting factual or computational errors in the report, where such correction does not constitute the disclosure of new market sensitive information. The response should not suggest that Wesfarmers' or the market's current projections are incorrect.

Where Wesfarmers' comments on analyst or broker reports to the relevant analyst or broker, a disclaimer should, where reasonably practicable, be made to the effect that Wesfarmers is not responsible for, and does not endorse, the analyst or broker report more broadly.
